PATH OF

MAXIMUM SERVICE

Path of Maximum Service is an experiential weekend in Native American tradition which utilizes the teachings of ancient ceremonies to address addiction & codependency. This gathering combines the Principles of 12-step Program & American Indian Concepts of healing thru Spirit. Topics to be covered will include:

- Making Prayer Ties & Getting into Prayer
- Path of the Channupa (Sacred Pipe) & Being In Maximum Service
- Inipi (Sweat Lodge) & Getting Right with God
- Vision Quest & Getting Right with Self
- Sun Dance & Getting Right with the World

Path of Maximum Service (affectionately called POMS) is led by Thunder, an Unci (Grandma & Great Grandma), Sun Dancer, Nobel Peace Prize Nominee, who honors her many elders & teachers, Leonard Crow Dog, Grace Spotted Eagle, Wallace Black Elk, Chipps Family, Tlakaielel, Rolling Thunder, & Twylah Nitsch. She received vision for POMS during a Sun Dance in Mt Hood Oregon in the early '80s & from that has created this powerful, transformative experience for such profound life changes as sobriety, healing of relationships, reconnection of the heart to the mind & many have expressed spiritual awakenings.

"She is a Spirit Interpreter. A Healer of the Teachers and a Teacher of the Healers." --Leonard Crow Dog

"I have worked with wise ones from all the races of the Earth. Mary Thunder stands as one of the BEST. Her integrity and arried her all over North and Central America." --Rolling Thunder

"...been here carried her all over North and Central America." --Rolling Thunder
